Summary of Incident / Details:

On 10-28-2021 at about 8:45 PM, KPD officers responded to the 600 block of N Tweedt St for a report of a female who had been shot. Officers arrived a short time later and located a 27 year old female victim who appeared to have been shot at least one time. Kennewick Fire also responded to the scene and immediately transported the victim to a local area hospital.

KPD detectives have been called to the scene and are investigating.

This was not a random act and appears to possibly have stemmed from a domestic violence incident. The suspect is not in custody.

This is an active investigation. Anyone with information, please contact the Kennewick Police Department. More information will be released when it becomes available.
